A Resolution Agreement is a document the Respondent signs to:
1. Accept responsibility for the violation of the Standard(s) of Conduct,
2. Accept the recommended sanction(s),
3. Waive rights to a formal hearing.

An Alternative Resolution is a mutual agreement, signed by all parties, as an alternative to the traditional Student Conduct Process. Examples may include, but are not limited to, mediation, facilitated dialogue, conflict coaching, and restorative justice.

A Hearing before a Student Life Hearing Officer is conducted by a trained University employee. The Student Life Hearing Officer determines whether the Respondent violated the Standard(s) of Conduct and what sanction(s) to impose.

A Student Conduct Board Hearing is conducted by a pool of trained University students, faculty, and staff. The Student Conduct Board determines whether the Respondent violated the Standard(s) of Conduct and what sanctions to impose.

A UAPA Hearing is conducted in accordance with the University’s procedures for conducting contested cases under UAPA Chapter 1720-01-05.

*Only an option if sanction of deferred suspension or greater

For violations of Standard of Conduct 7, written or oral statements provided during a Student Conduct Board hearing or Student Life Hearing Officer hearing are not admissible in any civil or criminal hearing for any purpose, including impeachment, without the consent of the party who made the statement. Please see Section 4 of Public Chapter 980 (2018) for complete details.
